

NEWS NOTES FROM SPRING HILL.
Irmo, R. F. D., July 23.—For a week we have had fine rains and crops have improved so much that the prospects now are in favor of a fine yield of corn. Cotton also is doing well. A considerable acreage of stubble land has been sown in peas, which are looking well. We have had rain every day since last Tuesday and farmers would be glad for a hold up of several days.
Miss Edna Haltiwanger of Sally, is spending two weeks with her grandfather, J. E. Haltiwanger, and other relatives at Spring Hill.
A considerable number of our people are working at the cantonment every day in autos.

Mrs. J. D. Ellisor's children who had typhoid fever, are recovering and getting along nicely.
A committee from the Board of Health is visiting every family in the Spring Hill School District urging sanitation and advising the people to fight the fly.
COURT CONVENES ON MONDAY.
The special term of court of common pleas will convene Monday morning, July 31, with Judge James W. DeVore, of Edgefield, presiding.
Clerk of Court Holly L. Harman has everything in readiness and the court will open promptly at 9:30 Monday morning.
The Dispatch-News for all the news.

Mrs. D. R. Haltiwanger and her lovely little daughters, Misses Mary James and Iva Caughman, together with Master Rufus Daly Haltiwanger, are spending the week with Mrs. Haltiwanger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Caughman, on the Wysses Ferry Road, Mrs. Haltiwanger has joined Mr. Hoover's Conservation Club and is devoting all of this week to the canning industry, taking advantage of the large quantity of fruits and vegetables on her father's splendid plantation.
Mr. Jas W. Shealy the very able and efficient county demonstration agent of Lexington county, was in town this morning on business.

W. P. ROOF, JR., PROMOTED
The friends of Mr. W. P. Roof, Jr., will be glad to learn that he is meeting with marked success in his work with The Casparis Stone Co. Mr. Roof left Lexington last September to accept a position with this Company as book-keeper in the Columbus, Ohio, office. After a few months he was promoted to traveling auditor and his employers were so well pleased with his work that he has recently been put in full charge of a plant operated by this company at Tonopah, Nevada.
The Newberry-Summerland reunion will be held at Delmar, next Friday, July 27th. This reunion is generally looked to with a great deal of pleasure.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.
Mrs. Charlie Corley spent Monday in Columbia shopping.
There are three vowels that should never become popular in business, IOU.
Ghosts which you now see, are no such things.
Mrs. Joe F. Harman is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. S. Rauch, on upper main street.
Send us your orders for job printing. We will certainly treat you right with good, neat work, at prices to suit you.
We are certainly obliged to Mr. John C. Dooley, one of the best truck farmers we have in this community, for a delicious watermelon of the Florida Favorite variety.

For the most graceful, charming and beautiful young ladies, according to number, we stake those of Lexington, including the young lady students and teachers of the summer school, against them all.
The kissing and idolizing of our soldier boys in France, by the sweet French girls, ought to be a drawing card for recruits. But, you know, some boys have no heart. They are all gizzards.
WEALTHY MINER, lonely, would marry. No objections lady with small child. R. B. Box 584, Los Angeles, Cal. 1wp

THE GROWING STORE

IT IS A MAN who wins out in the end that stamps success on his life, so with the store that continues, year after year, in the same location and in the same city to grow in popularity, its business spreading and expanding continually that stamps success on its business. How glorious it is and how pleasing and satisfactory for this firm to walk about through the crowded aisles day after day and see the uncounted crowds of people busily buying at our counters. The bigger this business grows, the more deeply we are concerned in the welfare of our customers, for it is continual advanced preparation in having what the customers want when they want it that enables us to supply them in a manner that will continue to bring them back to our store for everything they want. Some one has said, "this world belongs to the energetic." In any event, energy will do many things for the two-legged animal called man.
